"I had my baby when I was 16 years old. I struggled because I was a single mom and he was so young. During those times I'd get diapers from the baby pantry, but they would run out and I couldn't afford to buy more. I would wrap my son up in clothing to soak up his messes and then just shower him off. My husband and I both work fulltime, but we live paycheck to paycheck. Thanks to WestSide Baby I have diapers for my youngest son, and we can spend that diaper money on gas to get to work, pay rent or buy food."
- WestSide Baby Diaper Recipient

A delivery from WestSide Baby to one of my clients can mean the difference between a safe place to sleep and no crib. It's the difference between being able to feed and diaper your baby or having to choose between the two. It's the difference between knowing that someone out there cares and feeling completely alone. It's the difference between hope and hopelessness.
- Westside Baby Service Provider

WestSide Baby
basics for children in need

Stronger together – we are moving!

Thanks to you, for over 15 years, we have provided diapers when needed, shoes when outgrown and car seats for safe travel to thousands of local children from birth through elementary school. Even during times of change, the kids we serve come first. In 2014 we brought together St. Joseph's Baby Corner and WestSide Baby and opened a new Central Area branch, we ended 2014 serving a record 27,500 children! This year, despite a small fire requiring us to move our main operation on short notice, with your help we have continued to expand our reach to families in need in West Seattle, while replicating our services further afield across King County. Our events have expanded, our supporter base has grown, we have engaged more partners, and continued to fill over 300 orders a week.

In September we will bring our main operations under one roof as we move staff, volunteers, donations and storage into a new central hub. Together, we will be able to work even more efficiently to provide clothes, equipment and essentials for children and families in need. Our doors have always remained open and we appreciate your patience as we settle.

In this time of immense change we need your dedicated support more than ever. As we join together to keep even more children safe, warm and dry, I ask you to support us as we grow by spreading the word about WestSide Baby, through sharing this annual report with one friend. By telling someone today about why you support WestSide Baby, you can play a part in securing a future for vulnerable families in your community.

With excitement,
